

YOUNG VOLUNTEER AWARD NOMINATION FORM

The Young Volunteer Award is presented annually by QAHN in recognition of outstanding long-term contributions by a young Quebecer (16-30 years old) to the preservation and promotion of Anglophone heritage in the province of Quebec.

QAHN invites its members and the general public to nominate individual young volunteers for this award.

The Young Volunteer Award is presented during QAHN's annual awards ceremony.

Deadline for nominations: April 1st.

Nominating Procedure

The recipient of the Young Volunteer Award is chosen on the strength of support documents received by QAHN's Awards Committee.

The following criteria should be taken into consideration:

- The significance and quality of a candidate's contributions to the preservation and promotion of Anglophone heritage in Quebec;
- The degree of personal dedication in the field of heritage preservation and promotion as demonstrated by the candidate's level of volunteerism.
