

RICHARD EVANS AWARD NOMINATION FORM

The Richard Evans Award is presented annually by QAHN in recognition of outstanding long-term contributions by an organization or group of volunteers to the preservation and promotion of Anglophone heritage in the province of Quebec.

QAHN invites its members, member-organizations, and the general public to nominate organizations or groups of volunteers, including those not affiliated with QAHN, for this prestigious award.

*Deadline for nominations: April 1st.

Nominating Procedure

The recipient of the Richard Evans Award is chosen on the strength of support documents received by QAHN's Awards Committee.

The following criteria should be taken into consideration:

- The significance and quality of the nominated group's contributions to the preservation and promotion of Anglophone heritage in Quebec.
- The degree of personal dedication in the field of heritage preservation and promotion, as demonstrated by the nominated group's level of volunteerism.
